Session 48 as written runs about 100 minutes. This insert adds an opening video, a video of the readiness ruler, a scenario video that acts out the guide's Scenario 3 (MI during conflict resolution), and one talk, which fills the session to two hours.

What's in this insert

- Video 48A, "MI in FORGE" (1 min 33 s). The week so far (meeting someone where he is, the spirit, the OARS skills), the three situations the men will work through today, the readiness ruler, and "MI is a practice, not a performance." It ends on the opening-round question, Tell us about the OARS conversation you had since the last session. What happened?, and holds it for 20 seconds.
- Video 48B, "The Readiness Ruler" (1 min 47 s). The guide's explanation: the one question, what to say when he answers "a 4" ("What makes you a 4 and not a 1?"), the step up ("What would it take to move from a 4 to a 5 or 6?"), and why a 4 is real: from 4 to 5 is manageable, from 4 to 10 is overwhelming. It ends on the two follow-ups and holds them for 20 seconds.
- Video 48C, "Scenario 3: MI During Conflict Resolution" (2 min 36 s). Ray and Deon's cold war over a seat at the dayroom table, and the mentor's talk with Ray, in a dorm. The video stops for 20 seconds on the question (On the surface, it's about a seat. What's it really about?), then shows one way a mentor could handle it: reflections that get beneath the seat to respect, the change talk the guide expects ("We used to be cool...", "I don't want this to blow up into something bigger"), and the readiness ruler. It ends on the guide's first debrief question and holds it for 10 seconds.
- A talk on how minds really change: Megan Phelps-Roper, I grew up in the Westboro Baptist Church. Here's why I left (TED, 15 minutes 7 seconds). She was raised to picket with hateful signs. Strangers online reached her, over years, by asking questions and staying calm instead of attacking her. It is the MI mentor mindset seen from the other side of the conversation.

Run of show (120 minutes)

Time	Segment	Min	Notes
0:00	Video 48A	2	Play it before anything else, with the room already in a circle. It ends on the opening-round question; send the talking piece.
0:02	Opening circle	10	As written; the question is already on screen.
0:12	Review: OARS Quick Refresh	5	As written.
0:17	Video 48B , then The Readiness Ruler	15	Play the video at the start of the segment. It carries the guide's explanation; then run the two-minute volunteer demonstration and the pairs practice as written.

Time	Segment	Min	Notes
			The two follow-ups stay on screen at the end; leave them up during the demonstration.
0:32	Scenario Block: MI in FORGE Situations, with Video 48C for Scenario 3	50	Run Scenarios 1 and 2 as written (15 minutes each). For Scenario 3, play the video instead of setting the scene. When it stops on the question (about 40 seconds in), pause the video and take two or three answers, then play the rest. The video takes the place of the live run; go straight into the group debrief (10 minutes). The video ends on the first debrief question. Finish with the guide's key insight: "MI opens doors. Everything else you've learned walks through them."
1:22	Talk: Megan Phelps-Roper, I grew up in the Westboro Baptist Church. Here's why I left	16	Introduce it in one sentence: "She was raised to hate, and strangers changed her mind. Listen for what they did, and what they didn't do."
1:38	Talk discussion	2	One question from below; carry the rest into the next segment.
1:40	Putting It All Together: The MI Mentor Mindset	10	As written. Question 3 or 4 below fits after "The speed of change is not up to me."
1:50	Closing circle	10	As written.

Questions for I grew up in the Westboro Baptist Church

1. The people who reached her didn't attack her. What did they do instead? Which OARS skills do you hear in it?
2. She says asking questions "signals to someone that they're being heard." Where did you see that in today's scenarios?
3. Her change took years, not one conversation. What does that say about your goal in a conversation with someone like Marcus?
4. Her last step is "make the argument." When is it right for a mentor to be direct, and when should he draw someone out instead?

About the scenario video

The two men in Video 48C are actors made for this video; neither is a real person. The mentor is the same man as in Session 47's scenario video. Ray's opening lines are the guide's own ("He disrespected me. In front of everybody."), and so is the change talk the guide says to listen for; the readiness-ruler follow-up is the guide's ("What makes you a 3 and not a 1?"). Ray's last answer is written for the video. It shows one way to handle Ray, not the only way; the mentor doesn't mediate yet, as the guide says. Deon is talked about but never seen.

Preview before class. She describes the church's pickets, which attacked gay people and Jewish people and were held at military funerals, and says the church called for the death penalty for gay people. She quotes some of the signs. The talk is about leaving all of that behind. It is not about prison.
