Session 36 as written runs about 100 minutes. This insert adds two short videos and one talk, which fills the session to two hours without changing the ceremony.

What's in this insert

- Video 36A, "Phase 1 Celebration" (1 min 41 s). The guide's opening words ("Twelve weeks ago, you walked into this room as strangers... Today, you're not strangers anymore"), the twelve weeks of Phase 1 on screen, "the ones who struggled and stayed," and what today holds: each man called by name in front of his cohort, a look at Phase 2, and the recommitment. It does not mention certificates, so a man who is not advancing yet is not singled out. It ends on the check-in question, "What does it feel like to be sitting here, at the end of Phase 1?", and holds it for 20 seconds.
- Video 36B, "Phase 2: Build Others" (2 min 28 s). The guide's Phase 2 preview: "Phase 1 was about knowing yourself. Phase 2 is about building others. And Phase 2 is harder." Other people will test you; a mentor shows up anyway. The three-phase graphic, then the six parts of Phase 2 (mentor identity, teaching and facilitation, motivational interviewing, simulation training, restorative practices and life skills, assessment and the Phase 2 gate), and that real mentees come in Phase 3. It ends on "What questions do you have about Phase 2?" and holds it for 20 seconds.
- A talk on teaching others: Rita Pierson, Every kid needs a champion (TED Talks Education, 2013, 7 minutes 34 seconds), with discussion questions. A teacher of 40 years on why nobody learns from someone who hasn't built a relationship with them. It is about schoolchildren; the men will hear their future mentees in it.

Run of show (120 minutes)

Time	Segment	Min	Notes
0:00	Video 36A	2	Set the room for the ceremony first, as the guide says. Play the video once everyone, guests included, is seated.
0:02	Opening circle	10	The video has spoken the guide's opening words. Send the talking piece on the question it ends on. Let this round breathe.
0:12	Reflection: The Journey	15	As written, in your own voice. The video names the twelve weeks and borrows one line ("the ones who struggled and stayed"); the hands-up question and the list of what they've done are yours to say.
0:27	Phase 1 Completion Ceremony	25	As written. Don't rush it.

Time	Segment	Min	Notes
0:52	Phase 2 Preview, starting with Video 36B	20	The video gives the "Phase 2 is harder" framing and the overview, so you don't need to read them. Use the rest for questions, which the video's last card opens, and for the guide's answers to the common ones. Give the Phase 2 start date.
1:12	Talk: Rita Pierson, Every kid needs a champion	8	Introduce it in one sentence: "She taught for 40 years. Every time she says 'kid,' hear 'mentee.'"
1:20	Talk discussion	8	Questions below. End on question 5; it leads straight into the recommitment.
1:28	Recommitment Ceremony	15	As written.
1:43	Closing circle	15	As written.
1:58	Buffer	2

If portfolio presentations spilled over from Session 35 (the guide allows finishing them today), or the ceremony runs long, use the talk's 16 minutes for that and save the talk for another session. Never cut the ceremony or the recommitment to fit the talk.

Discussion questions for the Rita Pierson talk

1. She quotes James Comer: "No significant learning can occur without a significant relationship." Think of the man in this circle who helped you most in Phase 1. What did he do that made it possible to learn from him?
2. A colleague told her, "They don't pay me to like the kids." She answered, "Kids don't learn from people they don't like." In Phase 2 you'll be the one teaching. What will make a mentee want to learn from you, and what would shut him down?
3. "'+2' said, 'I ain't all bad.'" Where did someone in FORGE give you a "+2" instead of a "-18"? How could you do that for a mentee who is struggling?
4. "The tough ones show up for a reason," and "we teach anyway." The Phase 2 video said people will test you and still ask you to show up. What will you do on the day you don't feel like showing up for someone?
5. "Every child deserves a champion, an adult who will never give up on them." Whose champion could you be? Hold on to the answer. In a few minutes you'll add one personal commitment to the Recommitment Statement, and this may be it.

Preview the talk before the session. It is light and often funny, set in schools, with nothing graphic; the strongest words are "sucks" and "Oh God." Her "+2" story is about a quiz, which may land with men who have just taken the knowledge check; that can be a good thing to name.

Checklist additions

- ☐ Videos 36A and 36B and the talk loaded on the playback device and tested with sound
- ☐ Talk previewed and cleared under the facility's media rules
- ☐ Playback set up so it doesn't disturb the ceremony setup (certificates table, circle)
