Session 25 as written runs about 90 minutes. This insert adds two short videos and one talk, which fills the session to two hours without changing any of its content.

What's in this insert

- Video 25A, "Problem-Solving Framework" (1 min 47 s). It opens Week 9: most of the worst decisions happen in a few seconds, this week builds a system for slowing down, and what today holds. It ends on the guide's reflection question, how much time passed between the problem appearing and acting on it in your worst decision, and holds it for 20 seconds.
- Video 25B, "The Six Steps" (2 min 14 s). The 6-step model on screen, each step lighting up as it is named, then the five traps: impulsivity, tunnel vision, either/or thinking, emotional reasoning and pride. It ends on "Practice it slowly before you can do it fast."
- A talk on everyday choices: Jon-Adrian Velazquez, The C.H.O.I.C.E.S Connection (TEDxSingSing, 2020, 15 minutes 17 seconds), with discussion questions.

Run of show (120 minutes)

Time	Segment	Min	Notes
0:00	Opening Circle	10	As written, with the relationship homework check.
0:10	Video 25A , then Review and Reflection	10	Play it straight after the check-in. It gives the review in the guide's words and ends on the "worst decision" question. Let the room sit with it. Nobody shares the decision itself; take a few answers on how fast it happened.
0:20	Video 25B , then Instruction: The 6-Step Problem-Solving Model	30	Play it at the start of the segment as the map of the whole model. Then teach each step with the guide's examples: the cellmate's mess for Step 2, and the favor someone owes you for Step 4, done live with the room. The video names the five traps; spend the last minutes of the segment on them.
0:50	Practice Exercise: Apply the 6-Step Model	30	As written: 12 minutes alone, 10 in groups of three, 8 for the debrief.
1:20	Talk: Jon-Adrian Velazquez	16	Introduce it in one sentence: "He gave this talk inside Sing Sing, where he co-founded a program that teaches the children of incarcerated men to think a situation through, calm their emotions and make healthy choices. Listen for what he says everyday choices can do."
1:36	Talk discussion	11	Questions below.

Time	Segment	Min	Notes
1:47	Closing Circle	10	As written, with the homework.
1:57	Buffer	3	Count times, movement and late starts.

Discussion questions for The C.H.O.I.C.E.S Connection

1. Jon-Adrian says the everyday choices, how you respond to a problem, a confrontation, even good news, have the power to change a whole life. What is one small, everyday choice that has changed yours, for better or worse?
2. His program teaches kids to think a situation through and calm their emotions before they choose. Which of today's six steps is that? Which step do you skip most often?
3. What is the difference between reacting to a problem and solving it? Give one example of each from your own week.
4. Take one confrontation from the talk or from your own life and give three options, not two. What did the third option open up?
5. Which of the five traps gets in your way the most: impulsivity, tunnel vision, either/or thinking, emotional reasoning or pride?

Preview the talk before the session. TED's site has no transcript of this TEDx talk, so watch it through once for anything the room should be warned about and for anything the facility's media rules cover.
