

FORGE Phase 1 • Week 11 • Session 31 — Media Insert

For the facilitator. Use alongside "Session 31: Skills Integration Practice" in the Phase 1 Facilitator Guide.

Session 31 as written runs about 85 minutes (10 + 5 + 20 + 20 + 20 + 10). This insert adds two short videos and one talk, which fill the session to two hours without changing any of its content.

What's in this insert

- Video 31A, "Skills Integration Practice" (1 min 44 s). Week 11 in the guide's words: ten weeks of skills learned one at a time, all eight named on screen, then "Real life doesn't hand you one problem at a time." It lays out the week (practice, self-assessment, peer feedback) and the Phase 1 portfolio. It ends on the check-in question, "What's one skill from the past 10 weeks that you feel strongest in, and one you're still working on?", and holds it for 20 seconds.
- Video 31B, "Three Scenarios" (1 min 38 s). Your after-round words from the guide ("In real life, you don't get to pick which skill you need"), the five skills each scenario layers, the three scenarios by name with one line each, and the format step by step: hear it, analyze, role-play, rotate, debrief. It ends on "No spectators."
- A talk on being there when someone is ready: Victor Rios, Help for kids the education system ignores (TED, 2015, 11 minutes 43 seconds), with discussion questions. Rios was locked up three times by the time he was 15; a teacher who kept showing up changed his course. It sits right after Scenario 3, The Mirror.

Run of show (120 minutes)

Time	Segment	Min	Notes
0:00	Video 31A	2	Play it as soon as the men are seated, with the talking piece in the center.
0:02	Opening Circle	10	Start the round on the question the video ends on. Facilitator goes last, as written. After the round, go straight to Video 31B: it carries your "Here's the truth about today" words.
0:12	Video 31B , then Setup and Group Formation	7	Two minutes of video, then form the three groups as written (mixed on purpose, quieter men spread out). The video has given the format, so you only need to answer questions.
0:19	Scenario 1: The Domino Effect	20	As written: read it aloud, 15 minutes in groups, 5-minute debrief.
0:39	Scenario 2: The Slow Burn	20	As written.
0:59	Scenario 3: The Mirror	20	As written. End the debrief on the guide's words: "That's integration."
1:19	Talk: Victor Rios, Help for kids the education system ignores	12	Introduce it in one sentence: "He was locked up three times by the time he was fifteen. The talk is aimed at teachers, but listen to it as the mentor: what did one person do that made the difference?"

Time	Segment	Min	Notes
1:31	Talk discussion	13	Questions below. Tie them back to Kevin in The Mirror.
1:44	Closing Circle	10	As written, with tomorrow's homework: bring every journal entry, and start thinking about "Who was I when I started FORGE, and who am I now?"
1:54	Buffer	6	Scenario role-plays often run over. Use it there first.

Notes on the videos

- The scenarios are not acted out on screen. Video 31B names each one with the guide's own one-line framing (a crisis in the moment, a pattern building over days, someone at his lowest trusting you with it). You read the full scenarios aloud as written. The only argument on screen is a few seconds of two men arguing while a third steps between them with open hands; nothing physical happens.
- The videos do not give away the debriefs. "There's no single right answer," the lecture/minimize/make-it-about-you warning, and "Being a stakeholder doesn't mean handling everything alone" are yours to say after each scenario.

Discussion questions for the Victor Rios talk

1. Ms. Russ kept telling Victor, "I'm here for you whenever you're ready," and for a long time he wasn't. He says young people are "like oysters": they open up when they're ready, and if you're not there, they clam back up. Kevin in The Mirror had told you to mind your business before he came to you. What does being there when he's ready look like in a dorm?
2. When Victor told her about working with his uncle, Ms. Russ listened and said, "This is your power." Which Phase 1 skills was she using? Where did your group use them in The Mirror, and where did you miss them?
3. Rios asks people to change the label from "at-risk" to "at-promise." What labels get put on men in here? What happens to a man's thinking when he believes the label? (Think of Kevin: "Like I'm never going to be different.")
4. William was the kid who had been given every label, until the day he turned a young woman's tears into laughter and found a purpose: helping heal people in his own community. What would it take for a man in your dorm to make that switch? What part could you play?
5. The talk ends: "She believed in me so much that she tricked me into believing in myself." Kevin asked, "Do you actually think I can change?" How would you answer him now?

Preview the talk before the session. Rios mentions, in a sentence each, his best friend being killed, his uncle being shot and dying in the street while they waited for an ambulance, and police harassment and brutality. The talk is told plainly, but the room should not be surprised.
